1. Alejandro Conde Sanchez, a lawyer and a former Captain in the Air Corps of the Spanish Army, has revealed that he has been a Communist Party member since 1934, and that he contributes 50 bolivares monthly to the Party treasury.
2. Conde, who served in the southern division of the Spanish Army, stated that he was expelled from Spain when it was learned that he was a Communist. He arrived in Venezuela six or seven years ago. Prior to this time he resided in the Dominican Republic. Conde recently stated that he was planning to leave for Panama to establish a business there and that he expected to depart from Venezuela during the week 13-20 September 1948.
